SUBJECT: Freedom of Information Act Request: Staff Sergeant
James H. Roze, USA

Reference: DoD FOIA Request, Control Number 77-731, dated
2 November 1977, with enclosure dated 27 October 1977.

1. The referee requires that DIA conduct a thorough search of its files for information pertaining to Staff Sergeant James H. Roze, USA. Documents resulting from that search are provided as enclosures 1 through 14. None of these documents may have had information beyond the scope of this request removed, but in no instance has substantive material been removed from any of these documents.

2. Enclosures 1 through 6 have been excised for providing to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Roze. The information denied was properly classified, remains classified, and is therefore exempt from access or release pursuant to Title 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(1). None of the material withheld bears upon or in any way changes the meaning of the remaining information.

3. Three documents originated by the Central Intelligence Agency were maintained in Staff Sergeant Roze's dossier. The following documents, with DIA evaluations as applicable, have been forwarded to the Central Intelligence Agency Freedom of Information Act coordinator for classification review and direct response to the requester:

a. CG 311/26506-72, 5 December 1972 and DIA evaluation,
2 December 1977.

b. CG 317/26503-72, 1 January 1973 and DIA evaluation,
2 December 1977.

c. FBI 317/26134-74, undated and DIA evaluation,
10 December 1974.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel G. Rozo

DATA

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Rozo:

In the course of processing your request of 27 October 1977 for information pertaining to your son, Sp6 James M. Rozo, the Department of Defense located three possibly relevant records in its files which were originated by this Agency. They were sent by Defense to the CIA for direct response to you. The documents, Tab A, are being released to you in segregable form. Deletions have been made pursuant to the exemption provisions of subsections (b)(1) and (b)(3) of the Freedom of Information Act. (Please see enclosed explanations.)

1. CS-311/05908-72, 5 December 1972.
2. CS-317/09003-73, 5 January 1973.
3. FIR-317/09134-74, undated.

The above decisions were made by Mr. Robert E. Owen, DDO Information Review Officer. It is your right, under the Act, to appeal his actions. If you decide to exercise this option, you must write to the CIA Information Review Committee, in my care, setting forth the basis of your appeal.

Also enclosed, Tab B, are five Defense Intelligence Agency evaluations of the CIA-originated reports.

Please be advised that we have also searched the CIA files for information concerning your son. We found no record other than a copy of item No. 1, above.

Sincerely,

George W. Owens
Information and Privacy Coordinator
